

Clip: 1 of 2

The 100
RICHEST INDIANS

94. Anu Aga

93. SANJAY SINGAL

$1.07 billion ▲

Source: Steel

Age: 54. Married, 3 Children

Residence: Delhi

An uptick in demand and rising exports propelled the steel tycoon, who runs the $1.7 billion (revenues) privately-held Bhushan Power and Steel, into the billionaire ranks for the first time. Casting a shadow over his gains was the crisis facing his father Brij Bhushan Singal's separate steel empire: Its listed Bhushan Steel saw its share price tumble when younger brother Neeraj was arrested in August for allegedly bribing the chairman of a state-owned bank for extending the debt-laden company's credit limit. Sanjay, who spent years feuding with his father and sibling, has reportedly pledged to support them but now has to deal with greater scrutiny by his banks.

94. ANU AGA

$1.06 billion ▲

Source: Engineering

Age: 72. Widow, 1 Child

Residence: Pune

She regained her billionaire status

VKAS KHOT

on jump in shares of engineering firm Thermax in which she owns 62 percent with family. Net profits declined 18 percent in the June quarter, but it has orders in hand worth $855 million. She sits on its board but neither she nor her daughter Meher Pudumjee, who has been chairing company since 2004, run it.

95. AZAD MOOPEN

$1.05 billion ▲

Source: Health Care

Age: 61. Married, 3 Children

Residence: Dubai

Physician Azad Moopen chairs Dubai-based Aster DM Healthcare, a leading health care provider in the Middle East and India. He was a professor at a government-owned medical college in Calicut before moving to Dubai in 1987 where he set up his medical practice. He went on to build a health care empire that treats more than 8 million patients annually, employs over 1,000 doctors and covers the spectrum of hospitals, medical clinics, diagnostic centres, pharmacies and a health care consultancy. Passionate about reversing the brain drain from India, he has built hospitals and a medical college in Kerala.

FAST FACT

He sets aside one-fifth of his income for philanthropy every year.

96. SHYAM & HARI BHARTIA

$1.04 billion ▲

Source: Diversified

Age: 61. Married, 2 Children

Age: 57. Married, 2 Children

Residence: Delhi

The brothers benefited from a spate of new launches at pharma arm Jubilant Life Sciences, shares of which have more than doubled since October 2013. Their Jubilant FoodWorks, which has the Domino's Pizza franchise and accounts for close to two-thirds of their fortune, was hit by a slowdown in consumer spending. Unfazed, they plan to open 150 more stores this year.

FAST FACT

Both their wives are media baronesses. Shyam's wife, Shobhana, is chairperson of the listed HT Media. Hari's wife, Kavita, publishes the Indian editions of Elle and Elle Decor magazines.

97 SAMEER GEHLAUT

$1.03 billion ■

Source: Financial Services, Real Estate

Age: 40. Married, 2 Children

Residence: Mumbai

He set up a real estate, financial services and power empire with two college buddies in 1997. His Indiabulls Group was backed by steel tycoon Lakshmi Mittal from the start. He returns to the list after a five-year gap following a recent separation from his long-time business partners. While they took over the power interests, Gehlaut retains stakes in housing finance, real estate and securities businesses. He also owns properties in London.

(▲ UP ▼ DOWN ■ EVEN indicative of wealth changes) ■ NEW ■ RETURNEE